

13 Business Leaders Named The Entrepreneur of the Year 2025

Singapore, 30 September 2025 – 13 local entrepreneurs were announced as Winners of The Entrepreneur of the Year Award (EYA) 2025 at the Award Certificate Ceremony today. Of these, eight entrepreneurs were Winners of the Established Entrepreneur category and five entrepreneurs were Winners of the New Entrepreneur category.

The EYA is one of Singapore's most established business accolades showcasing entrepreneurs on a platform of national scale. The EYA is currently in its 35th year of honouring and celebrating the achievements of local entrepreneurs. With the theme "Global Mindset, Local Heart", EYA 2025 identifies enterprising business leaders whose vision reaches beyond borders yet remains grounded in values that serve their communities and society at large.

Mr. Tan Ching Hwee, Award Co-Chairman of the EYA 2025 Organising Committee, Association of Small & Medium Enterprises (ASME) said, "In today's turbulent times, it takes more than just business acumen to succeed. It takes a global mindset and a local heart. Our winners have not only navigated challenges with courage, but have also shown the wisdom to balance innovation with community, strategy with empathy, and ambition with responsibility. They remind us that true leadership is about rising above uncertainty while staying grounded in values that matter. We celebrate their resilience and vision, and the lasting impact they are making on both the world and the communities they serve."

Mr. Stanley Low, Award Co-Chairman of the EYA 2025 Organising Committee, Rotary Club of Singapore, said, “I am deeply amazed by the spirit of these entrepreneurs. Their courage to think out of the box, and their gift of turning age-old practices into new opportunities in the digital age. What inspires me most is how they balance innovation with a heart for service, uplifting not only industries but also lives. In their work, I see the power of human creativity joined with compassion for the less fortunate.”

Mr Adam Tan, Head, Community Financial Services, Maybank Singapore, said, “Congratulations to this year’s winners of the Entrepreneur of the Year Award. Their achievements exemplify the spirit of innovation, resilience, and leadership that continues to inspire Singapore’s SME community. Maybank is proud to celebrate their success and we hope their journeys will encourage more entrepreneurs to aim higher and pursue their ambitions with confidence.”

The overall winners for the EYA 2025 Established Entrepreneur and New Entrepreneur categories, as well as the winners for the Sub-Category Awards, will be announced at the Award Presentation Ceremony cum Gala Dinner on 10 November 2025.
